Rural Alliance Sydney meeting – Media Alert

Key rural groups will meet in Sydney today to discuss issues facing rural communities ahead of next year's State Election.

The Rural Alliance was formed in 2006 to help address policy issues affecting rural and regional NSW.

Thursday's meeting will hear from the NSW Farmers' Association; NSW Cancer Council; NSW Business Chamber; Country Women's Association; Local Government and Shires Association; NSW Irrigators Council; Australian Livestock and Property Agents Association; Royal Flying Doctors Service and others.

Media are invited to attend the meeting at 1pm.

Date: Thursday 27 May 2010

Time: Interviews available at 1pm

Location: NSW Farmers' Association Head Office, Level 25, 66 Goulburn St, Sydney
