

Wednesday 21 July 2010

PR/153/10

Association leaders elected

Day two of the NSW Farmers' Association's 2010 Annual Conference: Value of Agriculture has seen the election of the Senior Vice President, two Vice Presidents and Treasurer of the Association.

West Wyalong farmer John Ridley continues as Senior Vice President for a second term, as does Orange apple grower Peter Darley in the role of Vice President and Mangrove Mountain farmer Peter Comensoli as Treasurer.

Mining Taskforce Chair and Plain Station farmer Fiona Simson steps into the second Vice President role for a first term.

The remaining four positions on the board will be elected tomorrow.

Contact:

Amanda Barwick (Media Manager) 0428 400 736
Ellen McNamara (Media Officer) 0429 990 218

If you no longer wish to be on our mailing list simply click here to unsubscribe. If you are having difficulty unsubscribing from this page please email us on media@nswfarmers.org.au and we will remove you from our lists.