Media alert: North West Convention next week

Don't miss next Wednesday's thought-provoking NSW Farmers' Association Convention in Narrabri for farmers across the North West.

Industry experts will address a range of topics including economics and farming, transport, employment, the proposed Carbon Pollution Reduction Scheme and national food security.

Guest speakers from National Australia Bank through to local employers and representatives from the NSW Farmers' Association, including President Charles Armstrong, will tackle the major issues facing agricultural businesses today.

When: 9.30am Wednesday 17 February 2010

Where: Narrabri Golf Club

Cost: NSW Farmers' Association Members $5, non-members $10

RSVP: NSW Farmers' Association 1300 794 000
