Transparency is key

The NSW Farmers' Association has reiterated the need for transparency in the wheat industry, following claims of financial inducement to support the restructure of AWB in 2008.

NSW Farmers' Association Grains Committee Chair Mark Hoskinson says the Association is calling for a guarantee of transparency within AWB.

"The recent allegations of attempts to influence the outcomes of constitutional change by a former AWB Limited Director are of genuine concern to the Association," Mr Hoskinson said.

"Transparency in the operations of companies such as AWB is crucial to the farming sector."
