New President to lead NSW Farmers'

Fiona Simson has been elected the new President of NSW Farmers' at the Association's Annual Conference in Sydney.

The 47 year old Premer farmer, near Quirindi, is the Association's first female President.

Fiona farms with her husband Ed and his family on their 5,500 hectare property in the Liverpool Plains.

Fiona has paid tribute to outgoing President Charles Armstrong, who has led the Association for the past two years.
