

Wednesday 23 June 2010

PR/121/10

Region 11 Convention – Media Alert

The NSW Farmers' Association's biennial Region 11 Convention is being held this Friday at the National Press Club in Canberra.

This event on Friday 25 June 2010 will explore the theme "Young Emerging Leaders with a Strong Connection to our Rural Communities."

Speakers will include Mr John Ridley, NSW Farmers' Association Senior Vice President; Dr Michael Bonning, a depression awareness campaigner and a Director of Beyond Blue; Dr Geoff Cary, a leading international bush fire scientist Australian National University; Ms Adriana Downey, a Green Energy pioneer and Biochar researcher; Mr Ben Fargher, CEO National Farmers' Federation; Ms Sarina Locke, Rural and Environment journalist with the ABC and Mr Tim Wilson, Director Intellectual property and free trade unit Institute of Public Affairs.

People are asked to register their interest by calling the Member Service Centre on 1300 794 000 or call Russell Deane, Chair of Region 11 on Ph: 6226 4466.

Date: Friday 25 June 2010

Time: 9am registration, 10am start

Location: National Press Club, 16 National Circuit, Barton, Canberra

Contact:

Amanda Barwick (Media Manager) 0428 400 736

Ellen McNamara (Media Officer) 0429 990 218

If you no longer wish to be on our mailing list simply click here to unsubscribe. If you are having difficulty unsubscribing from this page please email us on media@nswfarmers.org.au and we will remove you from our lists.