

They travelled from far and wide

WOODENBONG
 Jamie Ramsay, Woodenbong - 1100km

INVERELL
 "We've got a full busload of the most diverse people you could imagine... The penalties farmers are getting for just trying to make a living are amazing."
 Bob Moore, Inverell - 900km

WALGETT
 "I'm here to support the movement for governments of all persuasions to protect property rights more than they've been doing in the past 20 years."
 Michael O'Brien, 2009 Farmer of the Year, Walgett - 700km

GLouceSTER
 Rod and Robin Bessier, Di Montague and Ed Robinson, Gloucester - 540km

TRANGIE
 "I'm here to make sure we have a future as young farmers and our land rights are going to be honoured."
 Tom Quigley, 2009 NSW Farmers' Association Tertiary Scholarship Recipient, Trangie - 500km

TOTTENHAM
 Thomas, Zanthie and Mitchell Hewett, Tottenham - 430km

CONDOLIN
 Graham McDonald, Dave Brown, Peter Mooney, John Coffey, Neil McDonald, Robin Sanderson, Phil and Charlie Thomas, Condobolin - 400km

HARGRAVES
 Rodney Suttor, Hargraves - 400km

SYDNEY
 Ian Moore, Guilford, Sydney - 240km

GRIFFITH
 Griffith via Ardlathan to Canberra bus - 360km

GOULBURN
 "Property rights are the absolute basis of civilised society and a productive society. If you don't know where you stand how can you work out where you go?"
 Alix Turner, Goulburn - 100km

DENILQUIN
 "I'm here to support farmers' rights."
 Sophie and Will Hodge, Deniliquin - 500kms

TOOMA
 Grace Walter, Tooma - 300km

BRAIDWOOD
 "I've got a lot of bush country and the government now is trying to take away some of our rights to clear, it's supposed to be freehold country..."
 Terry Hart, Braidwood - 80km

BOMBALA
 "The property rights rally means finally getting our voice heard... We've started a momentum going and people might keep listening to us from now on."
 Sue Haslingden, Bombala - 200km

PROPERTY RIGHTS RALLY Parliament House, Canberra

NEWS FEATURES

- Restoring farmers' rights Page 3
- Goats get the go ahead Page 5

RALLY HIGHLIGHTS

- Sign the petition Page 10
- Meet the Parkes poet Page 11
- Rally photographs Pages 14-15

INDEX

- President's column Page 4
- Chief Executive's report Page 6
- Industrial update Page 10
- Federal Budget Page 16