Media Alert: Beef producer forum in Wagga Wagga

The NSW Farmers' Association Cattle Committee is inviting all beef producers to a Producer Forum and dinner in Wagga Wagga on Monday 9 March.

The Forum will include an overview of issues affecting the beef industry including beef marketing, climate change, meat labelling, Bovine Johne's disease and an update on the activities of the Association's Cattle Committee.

Key speakers will include Richard Chamen, Chair of the Association's Cattle Committee; Hamish Munro, Cattle Committee member and Cattle Council of Australia's spokesperson on climate change; David Thomason of Meat & Livestock Australia and a representative of Cargill Beef regarding Meat Standards Australia.

The meeting will be followed by a question and answer session and dinner at 7:30pm.

All beef producers who are interested in attending the forum and dinner are asked to register their interest by phoning the Member Service Centre on 1300 794 000.

Date: Monday 9 March 2009
Time: 6:00pm - Producer Forum
7.30pm - Dinner
Location: Sapphire Room, Romano's Hotel
Corner Sturt & Fitzmaurice Streets, Wagga
