Media Alert: Farmers gather for Central West and Lachlan AGMs

The NSW Farmers' Association is holding five local Annual General Meetings (AGMs) across the Central West-Lachlan region from this week, and all local Members are invited to attend.

Branches and District Councils in Ardlethan, Mirrool Creek, Tullibigeal, Kikoira, Rankin Springs, Parkes and Condobolin will host AGMs.

The AGMs will include discussion on the big issues facing the local area, including exceptional circumstances funding, Livestock Health and Pest Authority rate changes, the proposed carbon emissions trading scheme, wild dogs and local environmental plans.

Office bearers for the coming year and delegates for the upcoming Association Annual Conference will also be elected at the meetings.
