Wheat Rally

Yesterday wheat growers from across New South Wales converged on Parliament House in Canberra, illustrating their frustration with the Federal Government regarding consultation on the wheat marketing bill.

Approximately 600 frustrated growers attended the rally organised by the Wheat Growers Action Group (WGAG) and supported by the NSW Farmers' Association.

US Ambassador visits Central West today

The NSW Farmers' Association is hosting a visit by the Ambassador of the United States of America, Robert McCallum to the Central West this week.

Ambassador McCallum will visit Orange today and Parkes on Wednesday to discuss issues including quarantine, the US Farm Bill and biofuels.

The Association welcomes the visit by the Ambassador, who will meet with NSW Farmers' Association Horticulture Committee Chair Peter Darley in Orange, and Executive Councillor Wayne Dunford in Parkes.

We want your produce

Are you producing the best veal, pomegranates, limes or olives in NSW? We want your goodies!

Following the success of the inaugural Regional Food Fair in 2007, the NSW Farmers' Association will once again feature our state's farmers as their raw product is shaped into contemporary gourmet delights served up for 450 guests.

This year we will feature 15 different dishes each served alongside the details of the supplier of the dishes produce.

For a full list of produce requirements email ac@nswfarmers.org.au or call the Members' Service Centre 1300 794 000.

How long have you been a Member?

This year marks the 30th Anniversary of the amalgamation of three organisations to form the NSW Farmers' Association.

Part of the celebration of the Association's history involves finding the person who holds the longest continuous membership with the Association or any of its predecessors. The winner will receive a trip to Sydney to attend Annual Conference 2008.
