Reminder – get your oysters here!

Come and taste the best oysters, best wines and beers with the best view at this year's Oysters in the House, on this Thursday!

Oysters in the House gives people a chance to not only taste and rate oysters from all the major oyster growing regions in NSW, but also to enjoy Sydney Royal medal winning wine and beer tasting with information about matching oysters with beverages.

The event will also include regional showcases with more local oysters including the Sydney Rock Oyster, Pacific Oyster and the Native Angasi Oyster and medal winning wines from the Macquarie Group Sydney Royal Wine Show.

“NSW oysters are the best in the world, and this is an extraordinary opportunity to get a greater understanding of the industry, and its fine produce,” NSW Farmers’ Association President Charles Armstrong said.

Royal Agricultural Society of NSW Fine Food Committee Chair Lyndey Milan said that “the RAS is excited to be partnering with NSW Farmers’ Association for this esteemed event. This year the event will give members of the public a new experience, that of professional judges in the Sydney Royal Fine Food Show as RAS judges leading you through the tutored tasting”.
